QUESTIONS ANSWERED

SPRINGDALE, KY. May 21st, 1890.

Mr. Editor: To settle a friendly dispute, will you kindly answer the following questions:

First—Were the Siamese Twins ever married?

Second—Did they have any children?

Third—Where did they live when not on exhibition?

A short history of this monstrosity would be well with interest. Yours truly,

READER.

Answer.—The Siamese Twins, Chang and Eng, were born in Bangkok, Siam, April 19th, 1811, and were but probably housemates. The father was Chinese and the mother Cambodian.

They were brought to the United States in 1829, and for the succeeding twenty-five years were exhibited throughout this country and Europe, being in Maysville on several occasions, the last time a few years before their death.

Prior to the war they had accumulated some $40,000, part of which was invested in slave property, when they settled down as farmers near Mt. Airy, N. C. The slave portion of their property was swept away by the war, and this so embittered them against the Government, and their vengeance was so outspoken, that a subsequent attempt at public exhibition throughout the North met with signed failure.

In 1842 they married two sisters, whom they had eleven children—Chang and Eng 3. Of these children two were deaf and dumb, but the rest had no material formation.

They died at their home near Mt. Airy,

Imperial Concert Waltz for the piano, by FRED. A. FULLMORE, one that is rightly named. It is music worthy to be played before the queen, yet within the ability of the average performer. It is good for the parlor, never, or a good teaching piece. Price 40 cents.

Write us for any musical wants.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Committee Grateful to All Who Part in Decoration.

The Committee of Arrangements on Memorial and Decoration services desire to return sincere thanks—

First—To the nobly ladies and gentlemen who consented to work hard during the occasion to make it a successful success, which has contributed so much to soften the heart of the world at large. There is an instance of the power of song rendered in the battle of the world, where it stilled the terrible charge for a brief peace.

Second—We were tender to the honorable gentlemen, Messrs. Weden O'Neal of Covington and C. C. Deegan of the orchestra, for your unselfish work and services. Weden O'Neal paid a glowing tribute to those of the "silent majority," and to the remaining fragment of the greatest civil army the world over.

Third—To the Rev. Dr. C. D. Newell, representing that grand and noble Order, Knights of Pythias, gave our Order a beautiful tribute of burning love known only to Pythian Knights.

The committee especially desires to return thanks to Mr. O. A. Means for services rendered on the occasion of memorial services rendered and decorations.

May 31st, 1890. Committee.

Andy Riddle, aged 78, died at his home near Owingsville.

Peter Kinead, aged 53, a citizen of Bath county, died at his home near Owingsville.

Two citizens were yesterday charged with refusing to assist an officer in making an arrest when called upon to do so.

The lowest fine for this neglect of citizenship is $15, and as it was an unusual case, the Police Judge dismissed the warrants and administered a stinging rebuke to the delinquent.

THE NARROW ESCAPE.

Thursday afternoon as the crowd was en route to the Cemetery, a motor car was drawing a summer car jammed full of people was thundering along through the Sixth Ward. When just about Wood street Charles Lyons attempted to get off, and failed to make the "catch." Mr. John Paul, who was standing on the footboard of the car, grabbed Charlie in order that he be saved from getting under the car, and as he did so, his head came in contact with one of the electric wires, severely bruising it. It was a very narrow escape. Had the car been moving a little faster he would have been killed.

Services are held by me on the 20th of the month.

Rev. John Cheap of Greenup will preach tomorrow at Selden's Chapel, Sixth Ward, at evening service.
